

The Friends of the Library
Host

Afternoon Tea

with

Victorian Gossip Girl - Annie Adams Field

Join Gossip Girl, Annie Adams Fields, as she spills the beans on her famous friends, including the "Father of Christmas," Charles Dickens, Nathaniel Hawthorne, Oliver Wendell Holmes, and Henry Wadsworth Longfellow! Mrs. Fields has incredible influence on literary decisions at Ticknor and Fields Publishing. No short of a Gossip Girl, she wrote about her guests' embarrassing moments in her novel Authors and Friends (1896). This intimate teatime conversation is filled with laughter and disbelief, and even some blushing cheeks.

MIDDLEBOROUGH PUBLIC LIBRARY

Sunday, December 4, 2022

1:00 pm

Gather your friends and family for an afternoon of fine food and theater.

Cost per person is $45.00

For reservation information, e-mail: events_at_fmpl@aol.com

All proceeds will be used to fund programs at special events at the library.

The live, theater production of Victorian Gossip Girl, Annie Adams Field is written and performed by Judith Kalaora, History At Play™, LLC Artistic Director, Copyright 2012.

Afternoon Tea - Menu

Starter

Tomato Basil Soup

Sandwiches

Turkey & Cranberry Chutney

Ham & Egg Salad

Cucumber & Tarragon

Roast Beef & Horseradish

Smoky Pimiento Cheese

Scones

Cherry & Vanilla

Savory Blue Cheese Cranberry

Sweets

Boston Cream Pie

Candy Cane White Chocolate Mousse

Macron

Raspberry Swirl Cheesecake

